

Coltale's Top Tips

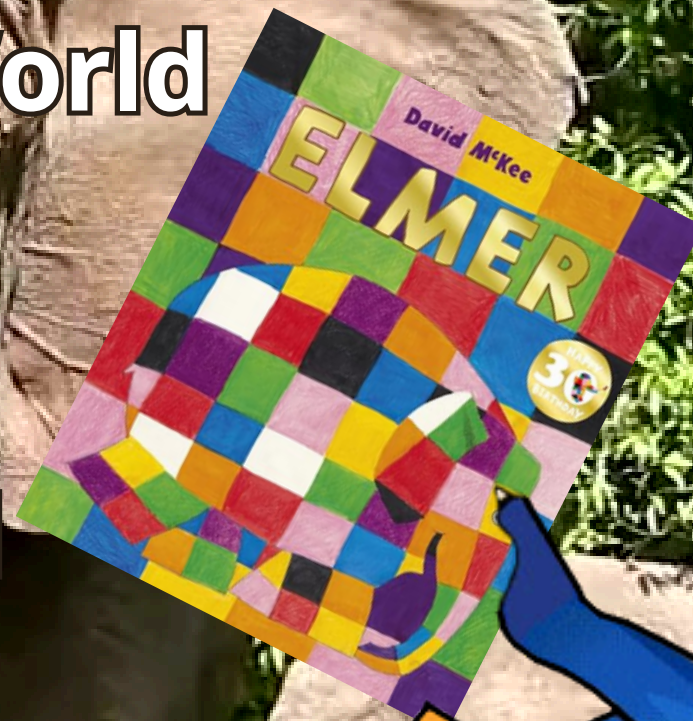

QUESTION: How can I get my child to repeat words or phrases?

ANSWER: Repeat the words or phrases yourself and ask your child to repeat them. You can make it a game by using fun voices or accents.

Coltale's Top Tips

August 12th is World Elephant Day, so Coltale has been reading, "Elmer" by David McKee.

Talk to your child about what makes Elmer unique, such as his vibrant patchwork skin and his warmth.

Coltale's Top Tips

DID YOU KNOW?

World Elephant Day invites the global community to come together to protect our amazing elephant population.

Asian elephants are endangered, and African elephants are a vulnerable species.

Coltale's Top Tips

Fun activity

Make elephant masks using paper plates, paper and crayons.
Encourage your child to decorate their elephant with bright colours like Elmer.

Coltale's Top Tips

GET ACTIVE

Walk like elephants!
Use words like 'stomp' 'wiggle your trunk', and 'flap' ears. Line up and walk together in a parade, making your best elephant sounds and movements.