

Coltale's Top Tips

QUESTION:

How do I model good communication skills?

ANSWER:

Use polite language, take turns speaking, and listen actively to your child.

Coltale's Top Tips

July 10th is Don't Step on a Bee Day, and Coltale has been reading, "Buzz-Buzz, Busy Bees: An Animal Sounds Book" by Dawn Bentley. Can you make the sounds of the animals, such as the bee, duck and frog?

Coltale's Top Tips

DID YOU KNOW?

"Don't Step on a Bee Day" encourages people to protect bees and their habitats.

A sign that a bumblebee is dying is damaged wings. Eventually they lose the ability to fly.

Coltale's Top Tips

Fun activity

Teach your child about the importance of bees. Use words like ecosystem, pollinate and honey. You could use the internet or get a book from the library!

Coltale's Top Tips

GET ACTIVE

Take your child on a bee hunt.
Talk about the different flowers
that attract bees such as lavender, sunflowers and dandelions.