

Coltale's Top Tips

QUESTION:

How does listening to stories support speech and language?

ANSWER:

It provides opportunities for discussion. Adults and children can ask questions, share opinions, and engage in dialogue, which promotes conversational skills and critical thinking.

Coltale's Top Tips

June 29th is International Mud Day, so Coltale's been reading, "Stuck in the Mud" by Miss Sally-Anne Peek.

Can you remember which animals helped Eleanor when she was stuck in the mud, such as the pig and the badger?

Coltale's Top Tips

City of London
Family
Information Service

DID YOU KNOW?

International Mud Day is dedicated to connecting children with nature and the outdoors through mud play.

The World Forum Foundation is where the idea of International Mud Day first began, back in 2008.

Coltale's Top Tips

Fun activity

Fill a large container with mud and add cups, spoons, small toys for children to excavate and explore.

Coltale's Top Tips

GET ACTIVE

Look for a mud puddle for jumping and splashing. Take turns jumping in and out. Talk about how the mud changes with movement.