QUESTION:

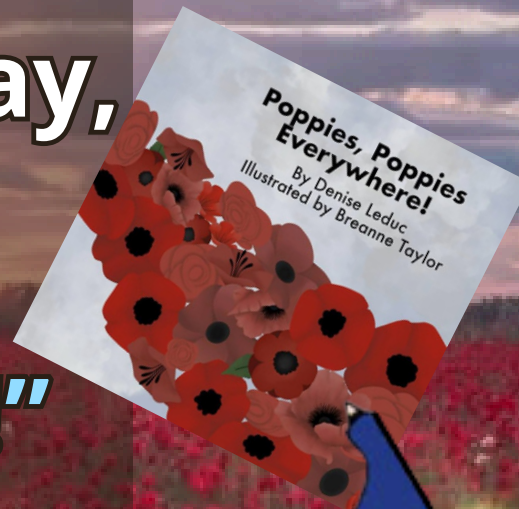

How do I engage my baby in conversations?

ANSWER:

Pause after you speak to them. Even though they won't use words they will respond.

Coltale's Top Tips

November 9th is Remembrance Sunday, so Coltale's been reading "Poppies, Poppies Everywhere!" by Denise Leduc. Talk about the thing's Charlotte wanted to do; such as go to the park and kick the leaves. What did grandma want to talk about on this day?

DID YOU KNOW?

Remembrance Sunday is to remember everyone who has fought and died in wars, from the First World War to more recent conflicts.

Remembrance Sunday always falls on the second Sunday of November.

Coltale's Top Tips

Thoughtful activity

Explain the idea of taking a moment to remember. Have a short, quiet time where children can think about their loved ones or anyone who has helped others.
